1:00 to 2:30 workshops woodwinds - flute, whistle uilleann pipes Steafan Hannigan ~fiddle(Saskia Tomkins)

Workshops will cost $15 per morning or afternoon session

Sandwich/cookie/veggie/luncheon from 12:00 to 12:45

The AGM will be from 12:45 to 4:30

We will have an attitude adjustment/personality development break with a cash bar (beer and wine) from 5:30 to 6:00 :)

Dinner will be from 6:00 to 7:15 at the seniors centre. Delegates, East Region Executive and the 60th Anniversary award recipients will be complimentary. All others will be charged $25 ($20 for Comhaltas members).

We plan on making the 60th anniversary awards presentations between 7:15 and 8:00 so as not to interfere with the ceili. There are a lot of awards so we felt that it would be better to have the presentation as part of the dinner. It is our regular ceili night and to take an hour out of it for the awards could put a damper on the ceili for non-Comhaltas members who regularly attend our ceilis. The dinner will be a more intimate setting anyway in our groups opinion. Anne McConnell-Strong invited His Excellency Irish Ambassador Ray Bassett to present the awards and he has accepted. The ceili will go from 8 to 11:00 or 11:30 and admission is $10 ($8 for Comhaltas members). Steafan & Saskia will provide the music. PLEASE CONTACT bowesjulie@sympatico.ca TO CONFIRM YOUR ATTENDANCE!

Please note that the dinner charge does not include admission to the ceili. There will be separate tickets for each .

Another Caint is Comhrá Successful Irish Language Immersion Weekend!!!

contributed by Bridget Guglich

The 12th annual event, sponsored by the Irish language group, Caint is Comhrá, under the auspices of CCE, Ottawa, was held at the beautiful Galilee Retreat House on the last weekend of September. The experience of being in a totally Gaelic atmosphere was enhanced by the gorgeous weather and the serenity and peace that this venue provides. We were blessed to have 2 young Irish teachers, who are visiting scholars attached to Concordia and U of O. In addition we had the help of our regular local teaching talent which is thriving in an atmosphere, where classes and conversation groups are available.

Gaeilgeoirí or Irish language enthusiasts came from London On, Kingston, Brockville and Montreal and we had a record attendance.

Two people who have played a huge role in advancing the use and knowledge of an Gaeilge, were honoured at the Saturday evening Siamsa. Mary Coffey who has taught for years up to the present day and Rosemary O'Brien who teaches Irish at the University of Ottawa, were presented with floral bouquets by Paula Molloy from The Embassy of Ireland.

Caint is Comhrá provides bursaries to students who are eligible to enable them to participate more fully in the Irish Community.

The bursaries are named as follows:

1. The Mary Coffey Bursary given to a candidate taking TEG, which is a standardized test of competency in Irish, defined by the European Language Testing Centre. { TEG= Teastas Eorpach Gaeilge }
2. The Rosemary O'Brien Bursary, is given to enable attendance at the Immersion Weekend in Galilee.
3. The Pat and Deirdre Scott Bursary allows a student to attend the Irish Language Summer camp held every August in the Gaeltacht in Tamworth. Of particular note is the amount of musical and artistic talent present at the Siamsa. It was truly amazing to watch so many young people and some not so young, share their gifts through song dance or playing an instrument. A memorable weekend!!

Our Irish tradition....."One of the oldest Celtic prayers is a prayer called "

St Patrick's Breastplate"

"I arise today through the strength of heaven:

Light of sun,

Radiance of moon,

Splendour of fire,

Speed of lightning,

Swiftness of wind,

Depth of sea,

Stability of earth,

Firmness of rock.
